

C.H.J. (Cor) Merx, LL.M (Simpelveld Netherlands 1949) originally was performing as a Chef in his own restaurant. At the age of 28 years old he studied the Law at several Universities in the Netherlands and is educated at: Traffic Academy Tilburg (Bachelor Degree, Civil Engineering) University of Groningen (Specialized in Criminal Law) University of Utrecht (Civil Law) University of Amsterdam (Information Management) and the Open University Heerlen (Business Administration).

Cor Merx started his career as Lawyer and Manager at the Law Office Gibson & Associates. He is waiting for admittance to practice in the Netherlands Antilles & Aruba.

At this moment he is practicing as a legal advisor in all kinds of cases (especially Criminal (Tax) Law), doing Interim Management (Construction Business), takes care of Residency Papers and gives second opinions in (going on) Court Cases for other Law Firms in a close cooperation.

The Office has a Lawyer at work with more than 7 years expertise in the general Law Practice. Furthermore there is working a paralegal for the Residency Documents and other (Business) Licences (educated in the Netherlands with a bachelor degree). On the other hand the Office has a very close relationship with local Law Firms serving all kinds of services to the clients. The Office is contacted very frequently for legal advice in (serious and important) Criminal Cases (local and abroad).

He used to be a Public Prosecutor (for 25 years) in the Netherlands and Aruba and a Director of the Information Department at the head office of the entire Board of Attorney's General in The Hague. Chief Public Prosecutor of the Windward Islands in the Netherlands Antilles and Solicitor General at the Appeal Court in The Hague and Den Bosch.

He was a former Court Clerk, Vice Chairman for the Information technology for the Windward Islands. Former Board member of the Law Clinic. Former Board member and author for the "Forensic Magazine". Former Teacher and examiner at the Police Academy Aruba. Guest teacher at University of Amsterdam. Legal Advisor for "Conclusion Incorporation". Member of the Association of Information managers of Amsterdam.

Languages: Dutch, German, English, French and Papiamentu (little Spanish),

Specialized in: Criminal (Tax) Law, Traffic Law (DWI,) Immigration Law, Civil law.

Hobbies: flying as a private pilot, playing the piano, reading books.